Brunchin' It, Island Style

LIKE BREAKFAST
WITHOUT RULES

When we're not in the rush of summer, trying to maximize "beach time" or busy at work, it's nice to take time to enjoy a leisurely meal with friends and family. Brunch is the perfect answer for a casual early get-together, especially on those rainy weekends or in the cooler months. Luckily, one sunny side of the "off-season" is that several restaurants add a brunch service to keep things interesting as the pace of business slows.

Brunch, the Outer Banks way, is highlighted by locations with beautiful views, creative specials, and delicious drinks. Local seafood is often a feature as well for expertly executed brunch classics. Whether you're in Manteo, on the Northern Beaches, or on Hatteras, there are several locations to sample this special blend of breakfast and lunch. The list that follows is not comprehensive, and brunch availability is subject to change, so check before heading out.
